

How to Comply with Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification (WARN) in Alameda County

The Alameda County Workforce Development Board is the Local Workforce Area covering all the cities within Alameda County (outside the City of Oakland which is covered by the City of Oakland Workforce Development Board.)

We are committed to helping employers navigate the process of downsizing and/or closing and supporting effected workers to the next step in their careers. Our services include providing effected workers with unemployment benefits information and job search assistance.

For more information or assistance please contact Javier Contreras, Rapid Response Coordinator at Javier.Contreras@acgov.org or (510) 259-3831.

On January 1, 2026, new requirements for any employer issuing a WARN Notice go into effect. This includes (a) providing mandatory information on public services to all affected employees and (b) indicating whether you intend to coordinate services with the Alameda County Workforce Development Board or another provider.

To comply with these requirements, use the template below and send your letter to:

- (1) the Alameda County Workforce Investment Board,
- (2) the Supervisor of the Alameda County District where the mass layoff, plant closure, or relocation will occur, and
- (3) the mayors of the cities where the mass layoff, plant closure, or relocation will occur.

(4) Then file your WARN Notice with the EDD to EDDWarnNotice@edd.ca.gov.

Your email should: Include the employer name in the subject line; include the written WARN notice as an attachment. (Accepted file types include: .DOC, .DOCX, and .PDF). Include contact information in case EDD has questions.
